

Crossword time!

Use the information which you have learnt in this lesson to solve the clues and complete the puzzle.

Across

Down

5. There are 81 of these including Berkshire and Cumbria.
6. The first was recorded in 1801.
7. Digging up the past. This might tell us about the local area hundreds or thousands of years ago.
8. People are a useful resource. They might record their personal experiences as one of these.
10. This type of Geography looks at people and settlements. Most of the changes in the recent past will have been in this category.
11. These can give us clues about the past. Without them we would find it very difficult to post letters.
12. Found in most churchyards these can tell us about people who lived in the parish.
13. A place where you spend a large amount of time and which has its own history.

1. Larger than a village and smaller than a city. This settlement could represent your local area.
2. An area which could be as small as the area around your school or as large as your county.
3. This type of Geography is unlikely to have changed much in the recent past.
4. The local area is likely to have seen many of these in its history.
6. Births, marriages and deaths all have to have one of these.
9. The Times is an example. It was founded in 1785 and can give us useful information about the past.
10. A subject at school looking back into the past.

Notes: