

Edexcel
Unit 1 – Global Global 3.3 Global networks (the growth of new “switched-on” places, or global hubs). 7.1 Globalisation brings both positive and negative changes ie a two-speed world 7.3 Reducing the environmental and social costs of globalisation requires action at a variety of scales Unit 3 - Water security 1.2 There is often a growing mismatch between water supply and demand Unit 3 – Superpower geographies 3.1 The rise of the BRICs and continued growth in established superpowers, has resource implications in terms of energy, water and land demand Unit 3 – Bridging the development gap 3.3 Trade, investment and economic growth have a role in reducing the development gap	Lesson 2 - Studying the growth of global trade networks Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 2 - Emerging economies are starting to tackle their problems Lesson 2 - Water pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 1 - Charting the progress emerging economies have made away from poverty
AQA
Unit 1 - Food Supply Issues Global patterns of food supply, consumption and trade. The geopolitics of food. Unit 3 – Development and globalisation Newly industrialised countries (NICs): their initial growth, with particular reference to the ‘Asian Tiger’ economies. Further growth of NICs, with particular reference to China. The concept of the North/South divide, and its relationship to the development continuum.	Lesson 2 - Food pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 1 - Charting the progress emerging economies have made away from poverty

'Economic sustainability versus environmental sustainability'. Unit 3 – Contemporary conflict and challenges Addressing poverty on a global scale, including the work by international agencies such as the United Nations.	Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 1 - Charting the progress emerging economies have made away from poverty
OCR
Unit 1 - The energy issue What are the social, economic and environmental issues associated with the increasing demand for energy? Unit 3 - Population and resources What factors affect the supply and use of resources? Unit 3 - Globalisation What are the issues associated with globalisation? Whether globalisation is increasing or narrowing the 'development gap' (with the aid of statistical analysis). Unit 3 – Development &amp; inequality In what ways do countries vary in their levels of economic development and quality of life? To what extent is the 'Development Gap' increasing or decreasing?	Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 2 - Studying the growth of global trade networks Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 1 - Charting the progress emerging economies have made away from poverty Lesson 1 - Charting the progress emerging economies have made away from poverty
WJEC
Unit 3 – Development 1.4 How and why are Development patterns changing? Unit 3 – Globalisation 1.4/1.5 Who wins from the global shift and globalisation?	Lesson 1 - Charting the progress emerging economies have made away from poverty Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies

Unit 3 – Emerging Asia 1.5 What are the effects of globalisation on India/China? 1.6 What are the environmental challenges and solutions facing China/India? Unit 3 – Sustainability 1.1 What is the global pattern of food consumption? 3.2 How and why is the demand for energy changing?	Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 2 - Emerging economies are starting to tackle their problems Lesson 2 - Food pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies
IB Diploma
Part 1 - Development Examine the progress made in meeting the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) in poverty reduction, education and health. Examine the global patterns and trends in resource consumption Part 3 – Global interactions Discuss the spatial pattern of global interactions through the mapping of core areas at the focus of interaction (network hubs/nodes), the peripheries and areas relatively unaffected by these interactions. Identify the effects of agro-industrialization and changes in international production and consumption on the physical environment. Discuss the environmental consequences of increasing international demand for one raw material.	Lesson 1 - Charting the progress emerging economies have made away from poverty Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 2 - Studying the growth of global trade networks Lesson 1 - Charting the progress emerging economies have made away from poverty Lesson 2 - Food pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies Lesson 2 - The environmental pressures brought by rising wealth in emerging economies