

Mapping growth - in Aylesbury

1884

In 1884 Walton was a separate village from Aylesbury. It had a large manor house - Walton Grange - which was on the site of what is now Aylesbury High School. The village was surrounded by fields and there was a well at the end of Turnfurlong. Next to the cemetery, which is still located there, there was a printing works.

1926

1938

