For each source that you have used write a paragraph to critically evaluate it. You could consider the following:

1. The date of publishing. Is it up to date or out of date?
2. Expertise of the author. How experienced are they about this subject? What is their job? What else have they written?
3. Bias. Is there any bias? If there is: What is it? What do you think about it? (Consider: the message given, persuasion, accuracy, fairness and the targeted audience).
4. Accuracy of facts. How accurate is the source? Can it be backed up?
