Plan for Adventure Booklet

Start by writing in the dates that your teacher tells you.

Date	What I need to Do	What I Actually Did
Lesson 1 (start also on lesson 2)	Set up assessment - gather sheets and understand what is needed. Decide on my adventure activity. Decide on a location to write about for this activity. Find out where to get my information.	I have gathered all the sheets I need for this assessment. I understand what I need to do for this assessment. I have decided on my adventure activity. I have decided on my location. I have found where I can find out information about my chosen activity and location.
Homework	Find out about my chosen activity - what people do, where they do it and why they enjoy it. Locate my chosen area on a map print out. I could use 'Get-a-map' from www.ordnancesurvey.gov Find out about four different landscape features that are used during the activity. Decide on a title for my booklet.
Lesson 2	Produce draft writing about my activity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) An introductory paragraph <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) What your activity is ii) Exactly what youngsters do within this activity. iii) Where they do it iv) why juniors enjoy it. b) Find four physical features that are seen, heard, touched or smelt whilst doing the activity. For each one write about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) What it is like. ii) Include a picture. iii) How it has formed. iv) How long it has taken to form. v) How it is used by my activity and why. vi) What damage adventurers could cause. c) A concluding paragraph: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) Why this activity is important. ii) How features are similar.

Resource Sheet C5

	iii) How features are different. iv) How features are under threat. v) How youngsters should behave in this environment.
Homework	Produce my final booklet by writing up my draft writing and using the map I found. Note: Leave one blank page to add my Code of Conduct next lesson.
Lesson 3	Produce my Code of Conduct for my activity in draft. Add my neat Code of conduct to my booklet.
